Ariel is a cinematographer based in London working across multiple platforms. With a background in theatre and further education in film, he has shot over 80 narrative productions around the globe. Holding triple citizenship (UK, BR, IT), he is free to travel and shoot internationally.

Originally from Brazil and a member of ABC (Brazilian Society of Cinematography), his approach to the craft is based on creativity and reliability, finding a common language on each project to best interpret the director's needs and the script.
